OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION.
Appropriate Tributes Ordered Paid In Government Departments—Praise for Hobart's Illustrious Career.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The president issued the following proclamation:

By the president of the United States.

A PROCLAMATION.

To the People of the United States:

Garret Augustus Hobart, vice president of the United States, died at his home in Palace, N. J., at 8:30 o'clock this morning. In his life he was one of our most illustrious citizens and one of our most faithful servants. His participation in the business life and the law-making of his native state was marked by unswerving fidelity and a high degree of talent and attainment. His career was a record of public service to the United States and president of the senate exhibited the loftiest qualities of upright and sagacious statesmanship. In the world of affairs he had few equals among his contemporaries. His private character was gentle and noble. He will long be mourned by his friends as a man of singular purity and attractiveness, whose sweetness of disposition won all hearts, while his elevated position, his unblemished integrity and wholehearted devotion to the public good deserved and acquired universal respect and esteem.

In sorrowful testimony of the loss which has fallen upon the country, I direct that on the day of funeral the executive offices of the United States shall be closed and all posts and stations of the army and navy shall be closed on that day at half past one, and the representatives of the United States in foreign countries shall pay appropriate tribute to the illustrious dead for a period of ten days.

In witness whereof I have set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed at the city of Washington this twenty-first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-fourth.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.
JOHN HAY, Secretary of State.

Colds on the Chest
When your cold has settled down deep in your chest, cough syrups will not relieve you. The system must be given strength and force to throw off the disease.

Scott's Emulsion
does just this. It enables you to conquer the inflammation. The lungs soon heal, and all danger is passed. Do not let the disease become chronic because of neglect.

See and be convinced at all drug stores.

AGUINALDO ESCAPED.
Managed to Pass Between Gen. Young and Wheaton—Young Pushing Forward.

MANILA, Nov. 22.—12:50 p. m.—Aguinaldo had escaped between General Young and Wheaton. General Young is pushing toward Bayambang.

MANILA, Nov. 22.—The whereabouts of General Lawton and Young was said to have become as mysterious as Aguinaldo's. The belief was beginning to grow at Manila that General Lawton had strayed at yesterday's fighting, and that he was now in the hands of the "government," and was pursuing the rainforest to the Pinquet mountains. It has been his ambition to capture the Filipino leaders, and he and General Young believed that a cavalry brigade, living on the country, could run them down to any part of the island.

A report came from Spanish prisoners was that Aguinaldo and others were nearly surrounded by Americans soon after the insurgent chief left Tarlac, but he escaped through the lines in "passant's" clothes.

Officers and soldiers arriving at Cebu from General Lawton's force describe the campaign as one of great interest. They said that Aguinaldo and his followers were left at various points without adequate supplies and attendance, and that they were making their way back across the terrible roads. A number of officers were dying and many of the soldiers and even some of the officers were marching on half naked, their clothes having been torn to pieces in getting through the jungles. Some of the men were dying from lack of food and shelter, and many of the soldiers were reduced almost to mere skeletons and hundreds were barefooted, their shoes being worn out and all were living on any sort of provisions. Bread was scarce and many of the men were eating the leaves of the banana tree.

The Zamboanga coast was carefully patrolled by warships in order to prevent the escape of Aguinaldo.

It was believed the Americans had proceeded north to receive the American prisoners from the Filipinos.
